

Wabash Center for Teaching & Learning in Theology & Religion
Conference for Graduate School Program Directors and Deans
IUPUI Conference Place Hotel, Indianapolis
September 30-October 2, 2012

Purpose: To increase the capacity of Ph.D/Th.D granting schools in theological and religious studies to include sustained conversation about teaching and learning as a part of the graduate student experience.

Sunday, September 30

4:00-6:30pm	Registration	Hotel Lobby
6:30pm	Reception	Bistro lobby
7:00pm	Dinner	Presidents Rm
	Welcome
	Introductions

Monday, October 1

6:30-8:30am	Breakfast Buffet	The Bistro
9:00am	Session One – “ But Not the PhD ” Barbara Wheeler, Center for the Study of Theological Education	Room 132
10:30am	Break
10:45am	Session Two – “ Whom will your alumni/ae be teaching? ” Gene Gallagher, Connecticut College	Room 132
12:00noon	Lunch	The Bistro
1:30pm	Session Three – “ Disciplinary and Cross-Disciplinary work in Graduate School ” Patricia O’Connell Killen, Gonzaga University
2:45pm	Break

3:00pm	Session Four – “What is good to teach about teaching?” Joretta Marshall, Brite Divinity School	Room 132
6:30pm	Reception	Bistro lobby
7:00pm	Dinner	Presidents Rm

Tuesday, October 2

6:30-8:30am	Breakfast Buffet	The Bistro
9:00am	Session Five – “Developing a faculty ecology of reflective teaching” Willie James Jennings, Duke Divinity School	Room 132
10:15am	Break
10:30am	Session Six – “The Doctoral Program Ecology: The work ahead” Nadine S. Pence, Director, Wabash Center	Room 132
11:45am	Evaluations
12:00noon	Lunch	The Bistro

*Check-out time is 11:00am
Airport shuttle service arranged by IUPUI Conference Place Hotel*