I. COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course will build on the philosophy and methodology of expository preaching presented in Introduction to Preaching, Past 0641. The course will focus on preaching biblical narratives while upholding a commitment to biblical exposition. Students will prepare sermon outlines and preach in class on assigned texts. The course will emphasizes narrative preaching from New Testament narrative passages. Students will also study preaching style, audience analysis and other significant aspects of the preaching event.
Prerequisites: Introduction to Preaching PAST 0641 (3)

II. LEARNING OUTCOMES

At the end of the course, students should be able to:

- Demonstrate an ability to identify a critical understanding of biblical narratives
- Demonstrate the development of congregational communication skills including audience segmentation, pastoral care and the application of scripture to daily life.

- Demonstrate the ability to develop and preach a narrative, expository sermon.
- Have thorough knowledge and critical understanding of the principles of effective narrative preaching.
- Identify and communicate the theological and biblical understanding of a single big idea or gospel truth.
- Thoroughly understand and critically discern the connection between Christian spirituality and the ministry of preaching.
- Be able to prepare and analyze narrative sermon outlines and their structural effectiveness.
- Appreciate and assimilate the principles of storytelling.
- Know the critical and theological foundation of biblical exegesis for sermon preparation.

III. COURSE REQUIREMENTS

A. REQUIRED TEXTS

B. SUPPLEMENTARY / RECOMMENDED READING:

C. ASSIGNMENTS AND GRADING

1. Critical Book Review: Students are expected to write and submit two critical book reviews of 6-7 pages in length based on your reading of the Miller text or the Lowry text. Provide a careful and thorough examination of the basic issues(s) at stake in the text, and to evaluate the relative strength(s) and/or weakness(es) of the author’s case. Seek to review the work critically: do not merely summarize, rather, seek to express the dominant issues and argument of the work.
   Due on September 23. 20% of final grade.

2. An Exegesis Assignment: must be completed for each of your preaching texts (two in total) and submitted with your sermon outline. This assignment shall demonstrate critical thinking, thorough research and adherence to accepted hermeneutical principles.
   (1) Due: September 30
   (2) Due: November 4
   Grade Value: 10% x 2 = 20%
3. Sermon Outlines:

You must write 2 sermon outlines on New Testament narrative texts that address the needs of contemporary culture. A list of approved texts will be provided in class.

Due dates: (1) October 21
(2) November 11
Grade value: 2 X 15% = 30%

4. Preach Two Sermons (one in a peer group; another in class), based on your sermon outlines and submit a full sermon manuscript.

Due date: No. 1: October 28
No. 2: November 18, 25 and December 2.
Grade Value: 2 x 15% = 30%

D. GENERAL GUIDELINES FOR THE SUBMISSION OF WRITTEN WORK

1. Your work should demonstrate the following characteristics:

For proper citation style, consult the Chicago-Style Quick Guide (Tyndale e-resource) or the full edition of the Chicago Manual of Style Online, especially ch. 14. For citing scripture texts, refer to sections 10.46 to 10.51 and 14.253 to 14.254.

Academic Integrity

Integrity in academic work is required of all our students. Academic dishonesty is any breach of this integrity, and includes such practices as cheating (the use of unauthorized material on tests and examinations), submitting the same work for different classes without permission of the instructors; using false information (including false references to secondary sources) in an assignment; improper or unacknowledged collaboration with other students, and plagiarism. Tyndale University College & Seminary takes seriously its responsibility to uphold academic integrity, and to penalize academic dishonesty.

Students should consult the current Academic Calendar for academic polices on Academic Honesty, Gender Inclusive Language in Written Assignments, Late Papers and Extensions, Return of Assignments, and Grading System. The Academic Calendar is posted at http://tyndale.ca/registrar.
